1. Claycore Pty Ltd (Claycore) warrants that from the date of purchase, for the respective Warranty Period, each of the above Products is free from mechanical defects and faulty workmanship or material (Claycore Warranty).
2. By purchasing any of the above Products, the customer agrees to, and accepts, these Warranty Terms and the Claycore Warranty.
3. Claycore has the discretion to repair or replace any Product the subject of a proven Claycore Warranty claim.
4. The Claycore Warranty applies to both the original and subsequent purchasers of the relevant Product, but the relevant Warranty Period commences from the date of purchase by the original purchaser. Proof of purchase date by the original purchaser must be provided prior to any Claycore Warranty work commencing.

5. The following cancels the Claycore Warranty without exception:
 - a) Use of parts other than genuine spare parts supplied by Claycore;
 - b) Repairs by anyone other than by a repairer authorised by Claycore;
 - c) In relation to a spare part, using or installing that spare part into a non-Venco machine;
 - d) Use of the Product in any way other than its intended purpose;
 - e) Failure to follow any instructions or guidelines (provided with the Product or available on the Claycore website) as to the correct use of the Product; and
 - f) Altering the Product in any way.
6. The replacement of a spare part in a Product does not increase the Warranty Period for the Product. The Warranty Period for the spare part applies only to the spare part.
7. A Product the subject of a Claycore Warranty claim must be returned to the nearest Venco agent (as nominated by Claycore) at the customer's cost.
8. The Claycore Warranty does not extend to any damage, defect or failure caused by general wear and tear. The customer accepts that clay is inherently corrosive.
9. Notwithstanding any contrary or conflicting statement made by any Venco representative or agent, or any other third party, other than warranties implied by law, these Warranty Terms exclusively constitute Claycore's entire warranty for the above Products.
